Welcome

I am happy to announce the Augusta Chorale of Georgia's 41st Concert Season! Our 40th Anniversary Concert Season was filled with anticipation!--We were able to sing together again---finally! Our season was all we hoped for and more, thanks to the support of patrons like you! Our upcoming season promises to be equally exciting! Our 41st Christmas Concert will feature A Creative Symphoni Dance Studio which offers dance classes to students ages 18 month to adulthood and mentors students through the beautiful discipline of dance. The Voices of Blakeney Elementary School and Bass-Baritone Isaac Washington Holmes will also be featured. Our 41st Spring Concert will showcase the wonderful talent of Grovetown High School Chorus.

We invite you to continue supporting the Augusta Chorale of Georgia (ACOG) as we Celebrate the Beauty of Song in 2023-2024. Our theme says it all:
Connecting Our Community through Music!

About Augusta Chorale of Georgia

Whether singing in concerts, nursing homes, churches, festivals, or schools, ACOG has distinguished itself with excellent repertoire and performances. ACOG was founded by local music enthusiasts in 1983 with the goal of “using every opportunity to bring about awareness of hymns, anthems, spirituals, and the classics.”

Dr. Phyllis Anderson is celebrating her 16th season with ACOG. Innovation, integration, collaboration and community involvement are the hallmarks of her leadership.
