Director & Guests

Dr. Phyllis Anderson, a native of Norfolk, Virginia, returned to the podium in 2007 when the Augusta Chorale invited her to be its artistic director. She teaches music at Baker Place Elementary School and works on the music staff at Good Hope Baptist. Her colleagues elected her teacher of the year at Paine College and at Euclaw Creek Elementary. She and her husband Walter Anderson, of Steubenville, Ohio, have one son, Joseph Anderson, a student at Georgia Regents University.

Dr. Rosalyn W. Floyd holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Piano Performance and Pedagogy. She is professor of piano at Georgia Regents University and accompanist for the Augusta Choral Society. Dr. Floyd's collaborative endeavors have taken her to many areas throughout the United States, the Bahamas, and the Peoples's Republic of China. Named as the Greater Augusta Arts Council Artist of the Year (2005).

Ms. Mira Hobbs, a native of Augusta, attended the Richmond County schools, earned a bachelor degree at Paine College and masters at Florida State University. For 10 years, she taught chorus in Richmond County schools. She has served as music director/audio engineer at Florida A & M University and musician at churches in Georgia, South Carolina, and Florida. She is an administrator/musician at Hammond Grove Church.
